One
blue dew falls,
The mist of our contentment settles.
One
of four blue years where color captures our minds
and we expand like
a rainbow grows
and each color we add
completes the whole.

All colors fade
into blue
skies and days
filled with careless concerns.
A certain pastel
lackadaisical haze
hovers.

The parched green of the late summer days strangles and the dust of early Fall settles on the football field
and off as
summer leaves
fall.
The red and golden tones
simmer and all is quiet.

Winter cold
comes, a bleak blue now
and a new year dawns
on a dark
gray day.
Different shades of blue
are discovered as somber melancholy reigns and rains.

Everyone looks for the
signs of spring
to ease things, pressures
and awaken the colors
once more.
The waiting quiet is disturbed
by spirited blue
streaks on a frosty
window pane campus
and we adjourn again
still waiting.
Small yellow flower friends welcome us back and we can hear some rumblings beneath the quiet now.
The birds and bushes hum
warm green tunes and we are confident of the color again.

But we soon awaken
to soulful wails of a misbegotten snow that dumps her heaps of quiet one last white time.
It is a trick to turn us back but color rushes forth inevitably.
A quite quiet hectic pace
emerges to usher forth
the May endings, beginnings.

The colors swirl and
hurry now to merge and
encircle our quietness.
And after one great dizzying
finale
the colors cool
and a faint blue
murmur
whispers again in the quiet.

HANNEFORD CIRCUS

Blue grasps and white moans encircled in steaming sweat reach for daylight's honor.
As the ball becomes golden,
land and time are precious.
A screaming faithful
displace the pain,
discourage the rain
and join forces as the shot
hangs in mid-air,
as the pigskin is thrown
and time stands still.
Disciplined bodies, precise
power
reigns.

A black and white photograph showing a close-up of a brick wall. A large, dark, irregular hole is visible in the upper portion of the wall. In the lower center, a white, cylindrical object, possibly a pipe or a container, is positioned, partially obscuring the bottom of the hole. The bricks are dark and the mortar is light, creating a textured background.

Rise homeward into blue
search, then reach
for timeless waters
to cleanse and bathe the doubts of existence as a common man born to common toil.
Celebrate the silence
and embrace thy flesh
for followers are few and Nature's stairway is not a path
for the timid,
as she bends and falls
dispersing the pure from the impure, the heights and waters unattained dreams are shattered, yet continue, struggle
bear the unborn will of
a listless soul
and plunge earthward,
back to the forgotten,
a life dreaded.

Then as grass and soil are felt anew peer deeply within, deeply within for golden is thy heart
when doubts
are stripped by determination and faith is forged
by a blacksmith of colors.

At the end of a four year rainbow the colors merge and vanish beyond the horizon.
Where is that glorious golden promise?

Is some that the pastel
portal of color hides
then gives the prize
and the color of Carolina
is not only

what makes

the

color
